

Eddie Capensis Now Missing

Wife Blames Her Mother-in-law; Eddie's Wife's Daughter's Stage Dress Starts Quarrel.

"CAPLES family again at war: Husband Gone, Blame Mother; Stage and Police Mixup" is the heading on the first page of the Los Angeles Examiner of Monday, over a story that has to do with the troubles of Mrs. Richard Caples, of El Paso, and her daughter-in-law in Los Angeles. A three column picture layout is also printed, one of the photos being that of Miss Margaret Caples, of El Paso, the other of Mrs. Eddie Caples and the other of her daughter, "Travels White," the latter in a short-cut stage costume. Over the cut is the caption: "Leaders of the Warring Caples Family." The story printed with the cut follows:

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls: Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and luxuriant at once—No more itching hair.

If you care for heavy hair, that glazes with beauty and radiance, that life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Dandruff. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair. Besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. Dandruff is a destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and it not only robs it of its life, but it also robs it of its beauty. It is the cause of the scalp; the hair roots fall out, and die; then the hair falls out, too. If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandruff. It is the only hair dressing that applies a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made. We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it, no dandruff, no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Dandruff. It eventually—why not now?—Advertisement.

Knifeless Treatments Startle Physicians

"The Craze for a Surgical Operation is Being Gradually Abolished," Say Drs. Young and Hinton.

PHYSICIAN'S REVENUE CUT IN TWAIN

That more than half of the ordinary physician's revenue consists of fees for operations performed is an established fact. That a majority of the operations performed on women in the United States are unnecessary is the statement made by Drs. Young and Hinton, the famous chronic specialists and specialists in diseases of women, whose "knifeless" methods in the treatment of chronic afflictions threaten to eliminate no small part of the physician's income.

For many years Drs. Young and Hinton have been treating and curing numerous diseases which medical science today calls "incurable" unless operated on. Women who have been advised by their physicians to go to the hospital for an operation are flocking in great numbers to Drs. Young and Hinton's office to consult with them before taking so dangerous a step. After an examination invariably comes the curt statement from the doctor's lips: "Operation unnecessary."

Women have fainted in Drs. Young and Hinton's office upon hearing that gladsome information. Women have cried aloud in their joy at being relieved of so fearful a strain. And the doctors have proved their assertions—for they have many testimonials from former women patients who have been cured of their "incurable" diseases through their knifeless treatments. Their modern treatment establishment, located at corner Oregon and San Antonio streets, near Union Clothing Store, is constantly crowded with patients from near and far, from Colorado, Missouri, Michigan, Canada, Iowa and Texas, seeking to learn the truth regarding their afflictions. Women who anticipate the need of a surgical operation should consult with Drs. Young and Hinton before accepting their physician's as final. If Drs. Young and Hinton can't cure you they will say so. Consultation and examination are free of charge. (Advertisement.)

domestic affairs of the Caples family. Musical comedies, or rather those who have participated in them, have caused much of the trouble which has rent the family into hostile camps. The costumes worn in the musical plays have also been a source of bitter controversy, particularly when by Miss Frances White and Miss Nell Walker.

"Mrs. Clara (Eddie) Caples is the mother of Frances White, who acquired some fame on the local stage with the Corrie Hartman and other companies. She is the local 'Splash Me' girl, and according to Mrs. Caples, Jr., her mother-in-law objected to the photographs of Frances in abbreviated attire. She also had adverse criticism for the stage appearance in the Caples controversy, and younger Mrs. Caples, recently of El Paso.

"Miss Walker arrived in Los Angeles yesterday from El Paso with the Mutt and Jeff company, of which she is a member. While not becoming directly involved in the Caples controversy, she contributed the opinion that the elder Mrs. Caples was prejudiced against any girl who made her living on the stage.

"Bill" Caples' Affair. "It must be mentioned, incidentally, that William Caples, now an actor, married Pansy Riggs, also an actress, last spring, who divorced him seven days after marriage. He became involved in an affair with another actress in El Paso, which resulted in a jail sentence for aggravated assault, from which an appeal is now pending.

"This affair is blamed by some friends of the family for the more recent troubles. But Mrs. Clara Caples declares that the trouble with her daughter Frances brought about the last controversy, which has been followed by complaints to the police by the two Mrs. Caples against each other and the reputed disappearance of Edward Caples.

"My mother-in-law took all of my pictures from the house," said Mrs. Clara Caples last night, "and she has them now in her apartments at the Alexander Hotel. She has them all day and demands them. Mrs. Caples always treated me offensively because she considers herself better than I. I stood her treatment until she came to my house and took the pictures. Then I got out the pictures and she returned them." "Miss Margaret Caples last night ridiculed the assertion that she and her mother had anything to do with the reported disappearance of her brother.

"The picture have been returned," she said. "Please tell Mrs. Clara Caples to go as far as she likes. She shoves me about as she likes." "Advertisement."

"LIGHT MONKEY" IS HELD ON COMPLAINT OF POLICE. El Chango Luz, "the light monkey," is charged by complaints filed in the court of justice of the peace James J. Murphy with assault to murder and burglary. Special police officer H. B. Garcia said that the defendant is one who cut him across the cheek at a dance on the night of August 5, last.

After the cutting, Garcia said, the monkey was unable to locate the man. It is said that he was in El Paso all the time. Antonio Corral, living at No. 7 Hidalgo street, claims that the defendant entered his home last November 29, while she was absent and carried away her clothes. The officers say that the man also took a sack of rice from another Mexican woman.

"Money Saved by Making Your Cough Syrup at Home. Takes But a Few Moments, and Stops a Hard Cough in a Hurry. Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 3/4 pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy. If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. It keeps perfectly. You will find it one of the best cough syrups you ever had—every one who has tried it can testify to that. You can feel it take hold—usually conquers an ordinary cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and the taste is pleasant. It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound. It is made of white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and other healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula. This plan for making good remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ACCIDENTAL SHOT COST MCNEAL LIFE

While Cleaning Revolver, the Weapon Is Discharged—Was Burned Out

Louis Lincoln McNeal, aged 48 years, died almost instantly Monday night at 7:15 at his home, 515 Montezuma street, when a bullet from a 45 caliber revolver went through his heart. The verdict of coroner James J. Murphy, who held the inquest, was that the gun was accidentally discharged while McNeal was in the act of cleaning the weapon. On a table near the chair in which McNeal had been seated, was a small box of the gun oil. Four of the cartridges, which had been removed from the revolver before the shot, were lying beside the body.

Before the shooting, McNeal was in one of the rooms of the upper floor of the residence. He was seated in a rocking chair near the radiator. Mrs. McNeal, and her son, Tyler, aged 18 years, were down stairs. They were not sure that they heard the shot, but they heard a fall. Running upstairs into the room they discovered the body of McNeal lying stretched out on the floor. The bullet had entered the back of his head and passed through his brain.

The family had been here a month, coming here from Hot Springs, Ark. Their home, during the recent fire at Hot Springs, a rooming house which the McNeals owned, was destroyed. The family had been living in a small house in Hot Springs, Ark. While he felt the loss, it is said, that McNeal had not brooded over it and did not appear at any time as if he was depressed.

Three days ago, McNeal secured a position with the El Paso Electric Railway company as an extra conductor on one of the cars. He had been working for that length of time. He was not called to supper Monday night because he had been working late. Mrs. McNeal decided to let her husband sleep through the meal hour, intending to call him later.

J. P. Hogan, who came here last Saturday from Silver City, N. M., to see a special horse race, made the round of the Juarez racing track Monday afternoon and landed in the city jail. He was wearing a brand new suit and a new overcoat, which, it is said, were obtained from B. Blumenthal & Bro. In payment for the wearing apparel, Hogan, it is charged, gave the firm two checks, one for $25 and one for $35. The checks were drawn on the Santa Rita Store company, Santa Rita, N. M. Sam Blumenthal said that he telephoned the company and was informed that Hogan was not known there. In addition to the clothing, Hogan secured something like $20 in cash.

Mr. Blumenthal said that Hogan arrived in El Paso Saturday and came to the store, saying he had been sent there by Hal Edwards, of Silver City, who was an old friend. Mr. Blumenthal said that he had told him that he had been sent to see the special horse race. Mr. Blumenthal said that the man showed him $20 in cash, which he had been sent to see the special horse race. Mr. Blumenthal said, he saw Hogan, who told him that he lost his money on the races. Mr. Blumenthal said he advised Hogan to get out of the city.

When the checks were first made out, it is said, they were drawn on the First National bank of Silver City. Hogan was informed that there was no such bank, it is said.

Why, I would not have had that happened to me, he said to Mr. Blumenthal. "It is the Santa Rita Store company in which I have my money. I have $20,000 there in credit. I have the checks then, it is said, were drawn on the store company. Mr. Blumenthal's suspicions were aroused and he telephoned the Santa Rita company. COLORADO PREPARES FOR A LONG STRIKE

Governor Seeks Support in Furnishing Troops With Supplies for Five Years

Pueblo, Colo., Dec. 8.—That governor Ammons does not expect an early settlement of the coal strike is indicated by his statement here that he wanted the support of Pueblo wholesale houses for five years if necessary in furnishing supplies for the militia. Assurances of this support were given at the conference of governor Ammons and Adlt. Gen. Chase, with reports at the rotary club and other organizations. Governor Ammons told the conference of the La Veta murders in which he believed the militia would be kept in the field indefinitely to preserve peace and to permit the operation of the mines.

Governor Ammons also conferred with local labor leaders regarding the possibility of a sympathetic strike. He was told that while the leaders sympathized with the miners, it was impossible to state what the attitude of local labor bodies would be until a vote was taken on the amphyathetic strike proposition.

EL PASO CHOSEN AS MAIL TERMINAL POINT

Is One of 40 Cities Selected and Will Have Terminal Postoffice at the Union Station

El Paso has been selected as one of 40 important railroad terminal points in the United States. The postoffice department has designated this city as one of the 40 places for establishing a terminal railway postoffice to facilitate the handling of all mail matter by working the bulky and fragile parcels post packages, and third and fourth class matter at the terminal postoffice instead of in the mail cars of the trains running in and out of El Paso. Chief clerk David McKnight has been notified that the department has approved the quarters in the union station for the establishment of a terminal railway postoffice. It will be opened on December 15 with five men employed in the sorting of these classes of mail. John E. Pincher will be in charge of the terminal office.

The terminal office will absorb the old transfer mail station at the union station and will require an additional room for handling of the terminal mail matter. Raymond E. A. Drolet, of Farmington, N. M., and Walter W. Jones, of Stanton, Tex., have been appointed substitute mail clerks, reporting to the local railway mail service office.
